IEEE In-house Quiz Competition

“Test Your Mettle”

Conducted Jointly by IEEE SB, AP-MTTS, CS, EMBS SBCs & WIE IIT Kharagpur

The preliminary round will consist of a bunch of questions from different specialized domains like computer science, electronics, electrical engineering, general science aptitude and logical reasoning.

Top 10 students will be selected from the prelims and they will have to apply for final round of this Quiz competition on 5th October.

The final round will be a live face to face session with Quiz masters. In this session the students will be given choices from the above-mentioned specific domains and they will be asked questions on that domain.

The finalists are going to get direct opportunity to become Student Activity Committee members of IEEE SB or SBCs or affinity groups of their interest and will get a percentage refund of the IEEE membership fees.

The refund percentages are:

First position: 100% ($27)

Second position: 60% ($16.2)

Third position: 30% ($8.1)

and rest 7 finalists will get 3$ each.

So, hurry up and don't miss the opportunity to become an IEEE professional by testing your mettle!!!
